About Max Lam Designs

Max Lam Designs Limited is a Hong Kong based, award-winning interior design studio specializing in bespoke commercial and residential projects.

As expressed in its logo, the professional team of designers and engineers of Max Lam Designs dedicate their creative ideas, good management and innovative skills, to rebuild a space into a remarkable interior space for people, by fulfilling people's needs, emphasizing the importance of lighting and collaborating art and culture.

"To Create, Not to Follow" is our motto. We craft the space by writing the client's story in the interior where they stay in. To us, every space has a story, every interior is unique. This passion to creativeness brings us recognition locally and globally.
