Filé Doux Collection

Filé doux, meaning without resistance, is a design collaboration between Jason Burhop and Etienne Dugal. The principle design feature of this collection is the seamless flow of vertical components to horizontal surfaces. Designed in 2016, the C401 stool, winner of the 9th edition of the Grand Prix du Design for the residential furniture category, is the cornerstone of the collection.

C401 | Stool

The C401 is a simple, elegant stool featuring a semi-spherical shaped seat that beautifully transitions to long rounded legs. The machined brass footrest is an important detail that adds both comfort and refinement. We think you will be thoroughly surprised at how comfortable a wooden, backless stool can be!
