The art of bespoke for harmonious interiors

Every interior is unique. Meljac provides a personalised approach, meeting the needs of architects, interior designers and home owners by offering a choice of materials, finishes, engravings and dimensions and the option of creating exclusive models. With its workshops expertly handling all stages of the production process, the brand tailors its creations to the smallest details of each project, from contemporary residences to historical palaces.

Blending expert craftsmanship with state-of-the-art technologies

Behind every tailor-made creation lies a combination of artisanal skill and precision engineering. Meljac's professionals apply the highest standards as they transform brass and other quality materials, while the R&D teams develop innovative solutions to integrate modern features such as home automation, LEDs and specific controls.

Prestigious projects worldwide

Meljac's bespoke creations can be found in the most inspiring settings: luxury hotels, cultural venues, the premises of renowned architects and private homes. The brand is recognised internationally for its ability to combine elegance, precision and customisation, with each product serving both a decorative and a functional purpose.
