THE CALDERA
COLLECTION

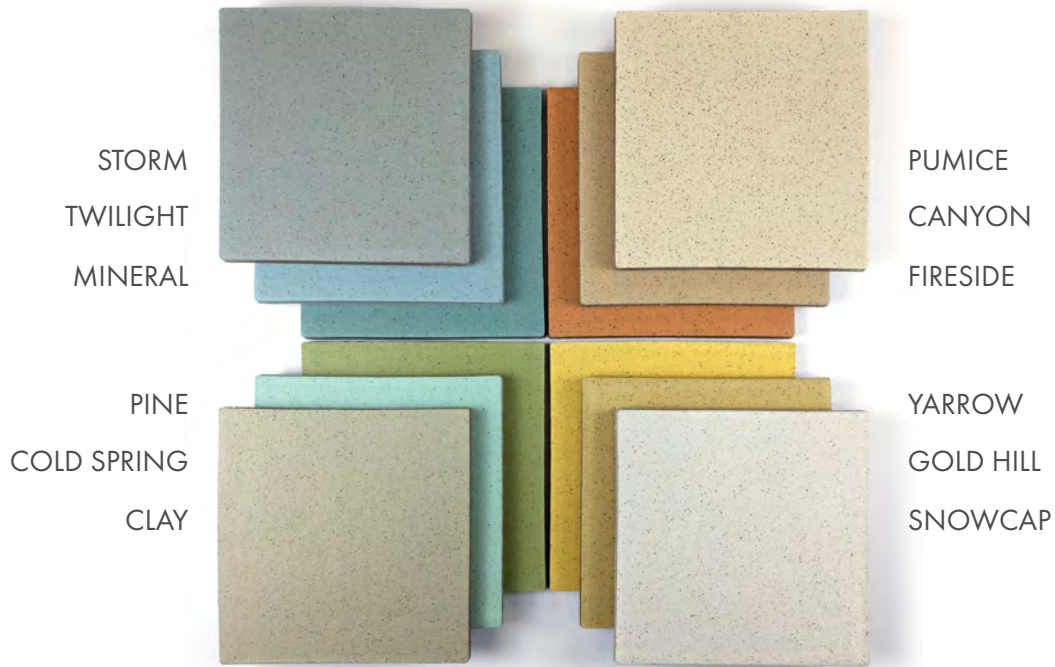

WHERE NATURAL ORIGINS MEET MODERN DESIGN

The Caldera Collection marks an exciting new direction for our studio as we move beyond our signature clean, crisp colorwork and into the warmth of texture and earth. Crafted from specialty red stoneware and finished with twelve textured, speckled matte glazes, this line embraces a more organic and quietly expressive aesthetic. Inspired by the high desert landscapes of central and eastern Oregon, from rolling hills to understated native flora, the collection brings a soft pastel palette to life through natural variation and tactile depth. Caldera offers a grounded and artful alternative for spaces seeking subtle movement and an authentic elemental feel.

COLOR WITH A LITTLE DESERT MAGIC

The collection's twelve matte, speckled glazes draw directly from the region's shifting palette, soft sands, warm stone, pale sage, sky blues, and the occasional flash of iron rich reds and sunlit yellows. With a spectrum that ranges from calm, versatile neutrals to hues that confidently command attention, Caldera offers a shade for every design intent. The palette is both expansive and rooted, allowing spaces to echo the desert's serenity or its rare, striking bursts of color.
